(1) Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. (2) He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; (3) a bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. (4) He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; his coasts shall wait for his aw.

(5) Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched them out, the earth and all that fills it, the LORD; your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. (6) But you, O Jacob, my servant, Israel, whom I have formed you as a covenant for myself, you are my servant; I have chosen you and not cast you off. (7) Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: "I am the first and I am the last; beside me there is no god. (8) Who is like me? Let him call me, and I will answer him; I will come near to him and hear him; (9) who is he whoomens my servant; to bring Jacob back to him; and that Israel might be gathered to him; for I am honored in the eyes of the LORD, and my recompense with my God." (10) And now the LORD says, "I will make all my exiles return, and have compassion on my afflicted." (11) But when you are afflicted and broken, and have gone through much suffering, I will open your eyes; and your deafness shall be removed, and your tongue shall be loosened. (12) You shall leave behind the spoil of your people in the land of the living; they shall feed on the ruins of the wicked. (13) You shall not again be ashamed, you shall no longer be despised in the earth; for I the LORD your Redeemer, I am your God; I will give you as a covenant for the people, I am your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

(1) Who has believed what he heard from my servant? To whom has the purpose of the LORD been revealed? (2) He was despised and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and we esteemed him not. (3) But we esteemed him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. (4) But he was pierced for our transgressions and he was crushed for our iniquities. (5) He was despised and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief. (6) to him was laid the transgression of us all, and the iniquities of us all. (7) He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; he was like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that is silent before its shearer. (8) He was taken from prison and from judgment; and who will declare his generation? For he was cut off from the land of the living; and they wrote him among the transgressors. (9) Surely he has borne our sorrows, and carried our griefs; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. (10) But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that made us whole, and with his wounds we are healed. (11) All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned—every one—to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquities of us all. (12) He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that is silent before its shearer. (13) He was cut off from the land of the living; and the transgressors transgressed against him—though the righteous one, my servant, made many to fall. (14) Therefore I will divide him a portion with the many, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong, because he poured out his soul to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and makes intercession for the transgressors.
